

RICHMOND BUSINESS BITES

FREE Small Business Workshop and Lunch Series

Upcoming Richmond Business Bites Workshops

May 14, 2015

Financing Your Business for New Contracts

September 10, 2015

Managing Your New Business Contract

More information available online at www.richmondmainstreet.org

Richmond Main Street presents a 3-part business education series to help local small businesses prepare for the "New Economy" emerging in the city of Richmond.

Join us for this FREE workshop, networking, and lunch to learn valuable information to strengthen your business.

WORKSHOP #1

Building Businesses for the New Economy: First Steps to Certifying Your Small Business

When: Thursday, April 16, 2015

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

(10:30 AM Check-In & Networking)

Where: Catholic Charities of the East Bay

217 Harbour Way, Richmond, CA 94801

This FREE workshop will give small businesses the nuts and bolts to:

- Demystify the certification process
- Understand certification types
- Utilize your certification

RSVP Required
Space is limited...

Register today!

Online at www.richmondmainstreet.org

Cost: FREE

$5 suggested donation

Featured Panelists

Hanh Kent

*Small Business Program Officer
Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory*

Roesia Gerstein

*Program Manager
UC Berkeley Supplier Diversity*

Vernita Naylor

Small Business Certification Expert

Ofelia Alvarez

*Senior Buyer
City of Richmond*

SPONSORED BY:

Questions? Call (510) 236-4049

Richmond Main Street Initiative
1015 Nevin Avenue, Suite 105, Richmond, Ca 94801